AR ROBBERS CAUGHT AFTER LENGTHY CHASE

Southern Pacific Officer Arrests Men and Recovers Stolen Freight.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, May 28.—After trailing four alleged car robbers since last Sunday, from town to town, Special Officer Corbin of the Southern Pacific, came upon his quarry at an early hour Thursday morning. Two of the men were found stowed away in an outfit car near Stockton and the other pair was picked up at Lakeside.

In the case with the two men arrested at Stockton were found sixty-seven pairs of shoes and other merchandise, supposed to have been pilfered from freight cars. At Lakeside the other two had made a bonfire, and are believed to have destroyed stolen property, fearing detection.

SECOND CASE OF KIND EVER BROUGHT IN STATE

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, May 28.—A case somewhat out of the ordinary has found its way to the Provo court today. The title of the case is the State of Utah vs. Delina E. Hanks, and the charges are that the defendant with crime of fornication committed on August 29, 1907, with one Frank Underwood, both parties being unmarried.

The case was brought to the court by the officers of the Provo city, and the officers deem it necessary to do something to stop the illegitimacy so prevalent. The Hanks woman has been prosecuted for this offense for many years. But in this instance the officers are going to prosecute before, notwithstanding this is the fourth child born to her, and it also has been charged that she has no record of it. The man in the case, Underwood, is now under bonds on the same charge. The papers have not yet reached the District court.

Olive Chipman Cranall has filed suit in the District court against W. W. Chipman and T. J. Chipman as executors of the estate of William H. Chipman, deceased, to quiet title to certain land in Section 34 township 3 south, range 1 east.

SENTENCE CITED TO HANG FOR DYNAMITING

Italian Captured in Salt Lake City Gets Death Sentence at Greenwood, B. C.

Special to The Tribune.

GREENWOOD, B. C., May 28.—Francis Cidden was found guilty of the charge of murder here today and was sentenced to be hanged July 31. Cidden was charged with dynamiting the Canadian hotel which resulted in the death of the proprietor's daughter, Miss King. He made good his escape, but was located later in the United States. Members of the provincial patrol traced Cidden through several states and finally located him in Salt Lake City, where he was arrested with the assistance of United States Deputy Marshal L. B. Smyth, who was one of the witnesses at the trial. Deputy Smyth and Officer McDevitt of the provincial police secured a confession from Cidden soon after his arrest, and this played an important part in the trial, it being used by the crown as evidence. Deputy Smyth has left for Salt Lake City.

After a chase lasting a year and a half, and leading from British Columbia to this city, Cidden was arrested here on March 31, in an Italian saloon in the western part of town. He was taken to the county jail by the Canadian officer and Deputy Smyth, to whom he later confessed to blowing up the hotel which caused the death of Miss Louise King. He was later taken before United States Commissioner Baldwin, who had the extradition papers issued at Washington, and the prisoner was returned to British Columbia for trial.

Cidden said that he blew up the hotel because the proprietor had insulted him and ordered him from the place.

SANPETE COUNTY STRONG FOR CHURCH MACHINE

Special to The Tribune.

MOUNT PLEASANT, May 28.—The visit of Messrs. Cretchlow and Irvine to this city yesterday has not been productive of any good to the insurgent political cause. They came to Mount Pleasant ostensibly on a political errand, and found that they were not against the real thing from a Smoot standpoint. Sanpete county is for the machine, and will dance to the music that Smoot dictates. It is reliably stated that Messrs. Cretchlow and Irvine were here to feel the pulse of the brethren relative to the renomination of Governor Cretchlow for Governor.

The candidacy of Ed Loose for the governorship is raising to the insurgents, and the two evils they prefer, but to Loose. While they were here they held several conferences with the Republican leaders, but derived small comfort relative to their plans. The Independent Republicans here are allied with the American party.

GOLDFIELD WOMAN ENDS LIFE BY HANGING

Special to The Tribune.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., May 28.—Ill health is supposed to have been the cause of Mrs. Emma C. Larson, a widow, killing herself by hanging this morning. She fastened one end of a rope to a window and the other about her neck and jumped into space.

This is but another chapter in a series of tragedies in the Larson family during the past few months. Al Denver, the latter part of last year, Mrs. Larson's daughter, was stabbed by the son, husband during a fit of anger, and the young man then attempted to kill the mother. She was taken to the hospital, but died.

Victor Larson, well known in Denver, and who is employed here as a printer.

SUES FOR FORTUNE TO PAY FOR A GRAVESTAKE

Special to The Tribune.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., May 28.—George B. Mechem of Denver, who has been suing in Cripple Creek, Colorado Springs and other places for years, today filed suit against L. L. Patrick, president of the First National bank of Goldfield, for $25,000, claiming that he grubstaked Patrick eight years ago, and that Patrick made a fortune in Goldfield.

Mechem is now one of the main owners of the Jefferson mine at $10 a share, and is a partner in the investment company of Denver. He went to Wall street and dabbled in Beaumont and was taken down and that another of hundreds of street stands. He is now in Chicago.

TEACHER BIDS PATHETIC ADIEU TO HER PUPILS

Special to The Tribune.

SANTAQUIN, May 28.—A telephone evening for Mrs. C. A. Tietjen, saying that Miss Luella Stewart is not expected to return from her school here until after last Christmas, when she took her departure. Mrs. Tietjen said that her condition became so alarming that her people had her removed to Pleasant River, where she died. Mrs. Tietjen said that she had a great deal to say to her pupils, and that she was very much concerned with her condition.

MINISTER ASKS ANARCHIST TO SPEAK FROM PULPIT

Special to The Tribune.

BUTTE, Mont., May 28.—The Rev. Mr. Lewis J. Duncan, pastor of the Unitarian church of Butte, recently invited Emma Goldman, the anarchist, to speak in his church on her visit to Butte, which she is to make in a few days. Because of this a committee from the local Grand Army of the Republic today waited upon Mr. Duncan, and requested him to refrain from asking the anarchist to speak as an orator of the community in the local Decoration day services Saturday.

Mr. Duncan, who is a right orator in demand for such services, will not retract his invitation to Miss Goldman. The matter awaits action by the G. A. R.

CAPITAL STATE BANK PLANS TO REOPEN CLOSED

Special to The Tribune.

BOISE, Ida., May 28.—Although today was the date set by court for the reopening of the Capital State bank, that institution did not open its doors this morning. State Bank Examiner Chaney announced last night that plans for reorganization which included a loan of $20,000 from outside interests in return for 20 percent of the capital stock had been abandoned. It is understood that other plans of reorganization are being considered.
